2) Seminar preparation class

This course is obligatory for all students in their B.Sc. studies who want to participate in a M.Sc. seminar offered within the Master Programs of our Institute. It is offered as a singular three-hours course and takes place usually at the end of the semester for seminars of the following semester. Courses are usually offered on three times a semester. If you can prove attendance of this course during your B. Sc. Studies in Economics at Kiel University, you do not need to participate in this class again.

Starting on January 7th (June 21st), you have the option to register for this course in OLAT (Kurs: Seminarvergabe MA-VWL) where you also find the certain dates for the courses.
